

USAID/Kosovo Comparative Practices on Donor Coordination in the Rule of Law Sector

Project Title	USAID/Kosovo Comparative Practices on Donor Coordination in the Rule of Law Sector
Project Summary	Conduct a study on donor coordination best practices in the rule of law sector.
Country	Kosovo

Project Description

The Government of Kosovo (GoK) has launched a Functional Review of the Rule of Law Sector. This review will help GoK to rationalize the rule of law system, define clear priorities for focus and reform in the justice system, eliminate redundancies, and make it more efficient and effective. This process is led by the Ministry of Justice (MoJ), and the international community has an important contributory role to play by providing assistance to the process. An important part of this process will also be analyzing GoK's coordination and cooperation with development partners.

You will contribute by conducting analysis and research on donor coordination best practices in the rule of law sector around the world. This is to support the work already happening in the MOJ and to support them by looking at best practices globally and in the region. Rule of law assistance in Kosovo is very diverse a significant number of players are present. USG, EU, and other donors play an important role and focus on improving of access to, respect, and demand for justice. Some of your tasks will include:

1. Research comparative practices on donor coordination in the rule of law sector:
2. Compile best practices, lessons learnt, experiences and stories on rule of law thematic development areas;
3. Highlight the strengths and weakness of each of the identified international good practice and provide recommendation on how each could work and support the development of more efficient donor coordination in the rule of law sector in Kosovo.

Required Skills or Interests

Skill(s)

Analytical writing

Research

Writing

Additional Information

You will be working closely with the Rule of Law Project Management Specialist in USAID Kosovo, and other members of the Rule of Law Team. Regular contact will take place and the Team will provide you with the necessary guidance, and support to complete this assignment, and make your experience exciting and successful!

Language Requirements

None